☐ YES ☒ NO

If yes, please explain:

The Post Office in Camden City Limits never has enough Regular sized P.O. Boxes, the line is always long with one person working the counter as they rarely have more than one working it. If you go in after hours to buy stamps, 9 times out of 10, the machine is out of order. Closing the Post Office in East Camden is a terrible IDEA. Thank You

The E. Camden Post Office is very convenient for me -
The Post Master is very courteous & efficient
I would be very much opposed to its closing.

My box has been here since 1967 (also in old building) It's convenient, for gas, groceries, and banking. I do not want a highway mail box.

More than anything, my 90 yr old mom can't be left for me to make a trip to Camden P.O. without having a sitter. I don't get far away.

I think that it would be unfair to East Camden Industries to have to come into town to mail pkg. and get mail.

This summer because Mom's Surg backfired, I was gone for 3 weeks. I knew my mail was safe and not all over the highway. I was in El Dorado

And had someone get it for me each week. I please don't close it.

I live at [redacted] [redacted] I have lived there for 16 years and live on the line between county and city and can not get my mail delivered at my house. I've tried 5 times to get a mail box but keep getting denied. I'm really going to be pissed if I have to go in town to get my mail.

If this is moved to the Washington Street location, I will no longer choose to use the Post Office box to receive mail. The parking is horrible. The traffic is bad, I do not go into town everyday. ~~see~~ I might go to town once a week.

This Post Office serves the community and to close it down would put hardship on many members of East Camden. For some people this office is a vital link to the outside world. With the expense of life going up everywhere there are some services that people should be able to count on and having this Post Office should be one of them.
